The Career Professional

“I’ve been working in economic development for 16 years. It’s what I know how to do, and I enjoy being able to make difference.”

Chris Berryman is a target market specialist for TVA Economic Development. His primary duty is to actively recruit companies in transportation-related industries, including automotive suppliers, to locate and expand in TVA’s seven-state region.

Before joining TVA, Berryman worked for Hardeman County, Tennessee, as an economic developer. Prior to that assignment, Berryman worked with several nongovernmental organizations and state departments within Tennessee advising and providing policy recommendations for land-use planning, with an emphasis on sustainability, for residential, commercial and industrial sites.

He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, where he earned two bachelor’s degrees, one in biology and the other in natural resource management, as well as a master’s degree in environmental policy and economics. He is also a graduate of the National Development Council, earning certification as an economic development finance professional.

Berryman is also a member of various state economic development councils and automotive manufacturing associations.
