

Selmer - West Adamsville, TN 161-kV Transmission Line Project

Land Use Land Cover Model

Legend

- |                              |             |                           |                             |                                   |                          |                                    |
|------------------------------|-------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------------|
| substation                   | house       | church auxiliary building | existing transmission lines | openwater                         | barren or disturbed land | openland                           |
| alternative routes           | mobile home | school auxiliary building | streams                     | floodplain                        | campground               | historical area                    |
| alternative substation sites | apartment   | radio tower               | transportation system       | house, apartment structures       | cemetery                 | commercial, service, institutional |
| commercial, industrial       | barn        | water tank                | pipeline                    | commercial, industrial structures | forestland               | forested wetlands                  |
|                              |             | spring                    |                             | golf course                       | school                   | all other wetland types            |
|                              |             |                           |                             | community park                    | church                   | RSA Wetland Model                  |
|                              |             |                           |                             | residential                       | tree plantation          | airport flight zones               |

McNairy County, TN

Location Map

